Expecting these big changes to China's cultural space to happen overnight may be unrealistic, but eventually such shifts are inevitable. This already started in the past decade, as the publishing industry began to open up and embrace new technology as a tool. It's a trend that I, and many in China's creative industry, welcome. There are too many more things to see and do in this world than can be seen and done in one lifetime. I've always loved to read. My head can't help but wander with the books in my hands. Whenever the opportunity arises, I'm happy to do so. When I was a kid, I could spend hours in a bookstore, reading and enjoying. As a student, that trend continues. But even those who love to read feel like
